I · GUNA MILAN

Guna Milan — Detailed

SAMPLE

BRIDE
Sample Bride · Pushya P4 · Karka

GROOM
Sample Groom · Punarvasu P2 · Mithuna

Varna — 0/1

What it checks: Spiritual & social compatibility. Varna shows the ego and spiritual level of each partner. Only 1 point, so it has the least weight.

Bride: Brahmin

Groom: Shudra

Order: Brahmin (spiritual) → Kshatriya (leader) → Vaishya (trader) → Shudra (service). The groom should be equal or higher.

> What this means: The groom's varna is lower than the bride's, so no point is given. This is the smallest factor and rarely decides a match on its own.

Vashya — 0.5/2

What it checks: Mutual attraction & control. Vashya shows how naturally the two are drawn to each other and who may lead in the relationship.

Bride: Jalachara (water)

Groom: Manava (human)

Groups: Chatushpada = four-legged animals, Manava = human, Jalachara = water, Vanachara = wild, Keeta = insect. Same group is strongest.

> What this means: The pull between you may feel weak at first. Patience and open talk are advised.

Tara — 3/3

What it checks: Birth star compatibility & destiny. Tara counts the birth stars from each side. It shows luck, health and wellbeing of the couple together.

Groom from Bride: Ati Mitra

Bride from Groom: Sampat

Stars are counted both ways. Counts of 3 (Vipat), 5 (Pratyak) and 7 (Naidhana) are the unlucky ones.

What this means: Both directions are favourable, a sign of shared good fortune and wellbeing.

Yoni 2/4

What it checks: Physical & emotional compatibility. Yoni links each birth star to an animal. It shows natural physical comfort and closeness between the couple.

Bride: Sheep

Groom: Cat

Bride's animal: Sheep · Groom's animal: Cat. Points: same animal 4, friendly 3, neutral 2, unfriendly 1, enemies 0. Natural enemy pairs: Mongoose – Snake, Cat – Rat, Dog – Deer, Cow – Tiger, Horse – Buffalo, Elephant – Lion, Monkey – Sheep.

What this means: Neutral animals. Closeness will grow with time and understanding.

Graha Maitri 1/5

What it checks: Mental compatibility & friendship. This compares the ruling planets of both Moon signs. It shows how well your minds and thinking get along.

Bride Lord: Moon

Groom Lord: Mercury

Each Moon sign has a ruling planet. Friendly planets think alike. Enemy planets may argue about goals.

What this means: The ruling planets are not friendly, so differences in thinking may show up. Respect and open talk are the key.

Gana 6/6

What it checks: Temperament & nature. Gana groups people by temperament: Deva (gentle), Manushya (balanced) and Rakshasa (strong-willed).

Bride: Deva (Divine)

Groom: Deva (Divine)

Deva = gentle and giving. Manushya = balanced and practical. Rakshasa = strong-willed and bold. Deva with Manushya is good. Rakshasa with Deva is the hardest mix.

What this means: Both have the same temperament, so everyday life should feel natural and peaceful.

Bhakoot 0/7

What it checks: Family welfare & prosperity. Bhakoot looks at the distance between the two Moon signs. It shows family welfare, money matters and harmony in the home.

Bride Rashi: Karka

Groom Rashi: Mithuna

SAMPLE

The two Moon signs are counted from each other. The unfriendly positions are 2/12, 5/9 and 6/8. Family and money matters depend on this.

> What this means: The Moon signs fall in a 2/12 Dwirdwadasha position, so Bhakoot dosha is shown and no points are given. Many families still go ahead, since exceptions exist (for example when the sign lords are the same or friends). Please check with your astrologer.

Nadi 8/8

What it checks: Health & family continuity. Nadi is the most weighty point (8). It shows health compatibility and is traditionally checked for the health of children.

Bride: Madhya (Pitta)

Groom: Aadi (Vata)

Three groups: Aadi (Vata), Madhya (Pitta), Antya (Kapha). The same group gives 0, different groups give the full 8. It is linked to health and children, so it carries the most points.

> What this means: Different Nadi, so there is no Nadi dosha. This is the best result for health and family continuity.
